Office of C. K. Sloneger, LIBERTY, IND., JAN. 10, 1898. Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

GENTLEMEN:—For about 10 years I was affected with Constipation, indigestion and Stomach and Bowel trouble. I tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and soon found relief. After using one fifty-cent bottle I am now well and can eat anything that comes on the table without suffering pain and distress in my stomach and I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone that has any bowel or stomach trouble. If you are afflicted try it and you will be convinced. Very truly yours, C. K. SLONEGER.

W. S. Philpot, Albany, Ga., says: "DeWitt's Little Early Risers did more good than any pills I ever took." The famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and liver and bowel troubles. W. T. Brooks.

Bourbon Gives Hams

[Courier-Journal]

To enlist the good people of Kentucky in the Confederate reunion May 30 to June 3, at Louisville, Col. Bennett H. Young has requested Capt. J. R. Rogers, of Cane Ridge, Bourbon county, to solicit hams from the farmers of his neighborhood. The Captain writes:

Dear Colonel: The enterprise of asking donations of hams from the good people of this county for the benefit of the Confederate reunion has been launched after much delay, and I am now enabled to report that it is a success. We will get from this county not 500 hams. Every housekeeper approached, property owner, Democrat and Republican alike, save one—and he a Confederate deserter—has contributed. I knew I could not be mistaken in my people. You should have an agent in the field in every county in the State where the prospects are at all inviting. Not only are the good people most cheerfully contributing, but our agent informs me that many of them indicate their purpose to attend the reunion. I believe if the populous portions of the State were carefully canvassed by the right men you would have the State so enthused that more people would attend the reunion from this State than all other sections combined. Here is your opportunity to flood your city with more representative Kentuckians during the reunion than ever saw it before.

Persons who want engraved cards or invitations of any description are invited to call at THE BOURBON NEWS office and look at the very latest styles in these lines. Prices as low as Cincinnati, Louisville, Philadelphia or New York houses. (tf)

Scotch as She is Wrote.

Mrs. Hohmboddie—What are you reading that absorbs you so?

Mr. Hohmboddie (looking up from his book)—It is a new Scotch novel.

Mrs. Hohmboddie (with enthusiasm)—Oh, I am so fond of those dear dialect things! Do read me a little.

Mr. Hohmboddie (reading)—"Ye see, Elsie," said Duncan doucely, "I might hae mair the matter wi' me than ye wad be spierin'. Aiblins me een is a bit dazilt an am hearin' the poolies thuddlin' in ma ears, an ma toongue in clavin when it sud be gaein, an div ye no' hear the dirin' o' ma hairt an feel the shakin' o' ma bond this day gien I gat a glimpse o' ye, sair hirplin' like an auld mon? Div ye nae guess what's a' the steer, hinney, w'out me gaein it mair words?"

Mrs. Hohmboddie—Stop, for goodness' sake! What in the world is the creature trying to say?

Mr. Hohmboddie—He's making a declaration of love.

Mrs. Hohmboddie—A declaration of love? I thought he was telling a lot of symptoms to his doctor.—Collier's Weekly.

A Rejected Favor.

When the German emperor was at school at Cassel he and his brother, Prince Henry, lodged in an old castle near, but in the school the two boys were treated exactly like any other youngsters. On one occasion, it is related, a master, knowing that Prince William was backward in Greek and wishing to curry favor with him, told him secretly what the subject of the next day's examination would be. Early next morning the prince went into the classroom and wrote the information on the blackboard in huge letters, not wishing to have any unfair advantage over his schoolfellows.
